- Take good notes
 - Make sure the abuse actually happened
 - Listen to the child

For questions 20–23, select the correct response for when a child discloses abuse to you:

20. You should _____ the child. Never criticize the child or claim that the child has misunderstood what happened. It is not your responsibility to determine whether the allegation is true. Children seldom lie about abuse.
- Believe
 - Affirm
 - Protect
21. You should _____ the child. Children who have been victimized may feel sad, angry, fearful, anxious, and depressed. Accept and understand the child's feelings. Avoid telling the child how he or she "should feel." Rather, emphasize that the child is not to blame for what happened. Praise him/her for courage and honesty, and promise you will get help.
- Protect
 - Refer
 - Affirm
22. You should _____ the child. Along with the Church Leader, Group Leader or other trusted adult, take the child to a private place. Discuss the situation only with these individuals. Try to avoid repeated interviews about the incident. Never promise that everything will be okay. You can promise that you will do what you can to help.
- Protect
 - Believe
 - Refer
23. You should _____ the child. DO NOT attempt to handle the problem alone. This is important for the well being of the child as well as for your own protection. As a child care custodian, you are mandated by the law to report child abuse.
- Refer
 - Affirm
 - Reassure
24. In the state of Texas, you must be able to determine beyond a shadow of a doubt that the abuse actually occurred before you are required to report it.
- True
 - False
25. If a child discloses abuse to you at camp, the three on-site people that need to be notified immediately are:
- Camp Coordinator (Church Leader)
 - Counselor
 - Child's sibling
 - Camper's friend
 - Camp Director
 - Fellow Staff or Volunteers
